

Classical Concert Series

at the
Verona Public Library

Rhapsody Trio will perform works by famous composers and share insight into their lives.

Bach: The Man, Music, and Coffee

Thursday, February 9, 6:30 – 7:30 p.m.

Music interspersed with real-life stories and anecdotes about one of the most prolific composers in history.

Mozart: A Jekyll and Hyde Sort of Guy

Thursday, February 23, 6:30 – 7:30 p.m.

A serious (mostly!) musician with a unique if not bawdy sense of humor, Mozart was a perfect blend of genius and mere mortal. In addition to music, audience members will be treated to some of Mozart's letters.

Beethoven: The Gentle Giant

Thursday, March 9, 6:30 – 7:30 p.m.

Sharing music and reflections from the master that show his love for nature and the softer side you never knew existed.

Presented in partnership with the Rhapsody Arts Center, Inc.
