

VISIONING TEAM UPDATE

VERONA AREA HIGH SCHOOL

06/27/2017

ACTIVITIES & HIGHLIGHTS

- Tours and discussion with Epic, WTS Paradigm (Middleton), and EUA's Workplace Studio designers provided opportunity to explore trends in progressive workplace environments.
- Tour of the new high school site provided context for planning.
- Consensus and preliminary direction was established for orientation of the building on the site, with concepts for overall mass and organizational layout beginning to take shape.

VISIONING SESSION #3 SUMMARY

In this session we focused on the orientation of the new high school on the site based on influencing factors such as topography, hydrology, sun and wind, views, and access from surrounding streets. We determined that an East-West layout provided advantages and allowed for a "ladder scheme" design with two primary corridors and a main street connecting space east-to-west. The idea of "sandwiching" the private areas (academic core) between public areas, such as the performing arts center and field house, supported our needs programmatically with efficient access and circulation, in and round the building/site. We've arrived at a preliminary basis for design that maximizes natural daylight, efficient indoor/outdoor connections, and critical program adjacencies. We are still early in Schematic Design, but making progress!

Although the design will continue to evolve based on new information and input, including evaluation from civil engineering and budget reviews to confirm design concepts remain within the referendum budget, we want to share progress.
