VAHS THEATRE Presents

You Can’t Take It With You

By
Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman

VAHS Theatre Arts will present three performances of the classic comedy You Can’t Take It With You on March 26-28, 2015 in the VAHS Performing Arts Center. The original production of the play opened at the Booth Theatre on Dec. 14, 1936, and played for 837 performances. The play won the 1937 Pulitzer Prize for Drama. The story revolves around the escapades of the eccentric and colorful Sycamore family. At first the Sycamores seem mad, but it is not long before we realize that if they are mad, the rest of the world is madder still. They are a happily eccentric gang of snake collectors, cunning revolutionaries, ballet dancers and skyrocket makers. With its spirited defense of living life for the sheer joy of living, the play has been a stalwart of the American theatre for over 75 years.

The VAHS Theatre cast includes Molly Kempfer, Zoe Hansen, Makena Meyers, Randy Kessenich, Caulden Parkel, Sam Schultz, Tomas Endter, Kanu Shenoi, Maggie Ferguson, Chayank, Ben Kaeder, Will Schroeder, Natalie Long, Patrick Desmond, Mary Schroeder, Damien Sagopolu, Max Luke, and Emily Marckesano.

The production is directed by Steve Nibbe. Carmen Berkan and Harry Ireland will stage manage.

Tickets for the production are $10.00 for general admission and $5.00 for students and seniors and can be obtained by calling the VAHS Theatre box office at 845-4488.
